

little brown bat

Myotis lucifugus

cave bat

THREATENED!

© WDNR Bat Program

Hibernates during winter

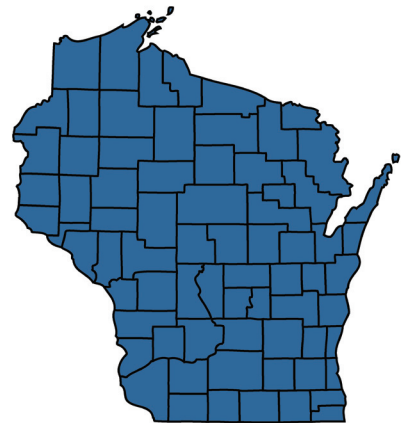

up to 10" wingspan

Most likely to see

Mother bats
roost together
in bat houses
and tree
cavities;
others roost
alone

Lives all over state;
more common in
south and west