

tricolored bat

Perimyotis subflavus

© WDNR Bat Program

Hibernates during winter

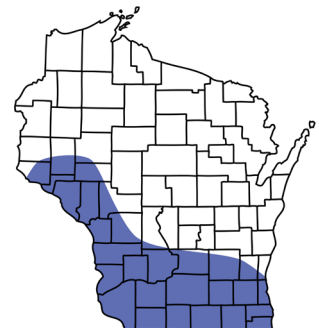

8 - 10" wingspan

Begins slow,
erratic flying early in the evening

Females
roost with other bats in bat houses,
tree cavities,
and caves

Lives in southwest corner of state, not common